Action One: Prayer

God of the open door, You welcomed shepherds and sages, lepers and lovers, sinners and saints. You never asked for credentials—only hearts willing to be loved. Today, we ask for Your Spirit of welcome to descend on us. Break through our walls of judgment, our fears of difference, our tight circles of comfort. Teach us to open our arms as You open Yours—wide enough to embrace the whole world. Let us not be a Church of locked gates and reserved pews, but a home where the lonely find belonging, where the weary find rest, where the skeptical find room to question, and where the hurting find healing. Lord, You came not for the well, but for the wounded. May we never forget that we are all wounded—and all are welcome. Amen. (from Fr. Medard Laz)
